University Academic Integrity Policy & Code of Student Conduct
Office of the Dean of Academic Affairs - Effective Academic Year 2025-2026

Section 1. Core Principles of Academic Honesty
Academic integrity is the cornerstone of scholarly inquiry. Every student agrees to produce original work, acknowledge intellectual debts properly, and uphold ethical conduct in examinations and research.

Section 2. Violations and Definitions of Misconduct
The following behaviors constitute severe violations of university standards:
1. Plagiarism: Submitting another author's work, code, or ideas as one's own without appropriate citation.
2. Unauthorized Collaboration: Working together on individual problem sets or programming tasks without explici
3. Contract Cheating: Purchasing or soliciting commercial homework completion or essay writing services.
4. Unauthorized AI Usage: Using large language models to generate solutions when prohibited by course policy.

University Academic Integrity Policy: Sanctions and Appeals

Section 3. Disciplinary Sanctions
Upon confirmation of an academic integrity violation, sanctions may include:
- First Offense: Failure on the assignment (grade of zero) and official reprimand placed in student dossier.
- Egregious or Second Offense: Immediate grade of 'XF' (failure due to academic dishonesty) in the course.
- Third Offense or Gross Misconduct: Permanent expulsion from the university.

Section 4. Student Appeals Procedure
A student has the right to appeal any disciplinary finding to the Academic Integrity Board.
Appeals must be lodged in writing within ten (10) business days following receipt of the official decision.
Hearings will be convened within twenty (20) business days of appeal submission.